Abstract

Mario Demers, a physical education teacher from Quebec together with Fabio Dionne created a gigantic ball, which they used in inventing Kin-Ball. Kin-Ball is a game, comprising three teams. The teams are distinguished by three official colors: grey, black and pink. Kin-Ball is a non-aggressive sport, without physical contact, and can be played unofficially between mixed teams.

Key words: Kin-Ball, gigantic ball, three teams, non-contact, leisure.
